CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Members:

In the October newsletter, I mentioned that we had been offered the property at 34 Sturges Avenue that belongs to the Richland County Historical Society. At that time, I asked for comments from you concerning your thoughts or ideas. I have received a number of responses and they were three to one in favor of accepting the offer.

We negotiated with the Richland County Historical Society on an agreement that would be advantageous to both parties. One of the problems which we encountered was the condition imposed upon the Richland County Historical Society that they could not sell the property for five years. We reached an agreement with the Richland County Historical Society. We would lease the property for five (5) years and at the end of that time, we would purchase the property for $72,500.00. The terms were approved by the Boards of Trustees of the Richland County Historical Society and the Ohio Genealogical Society. An agreement was signed in early December.

We are now in the process of getting ready to move the library and offices into our new headquarters. Library shelving has been ordered and lights are being changed to accommodate library usage. We have also ordered new carpet and as soon as these things are accomplished, we will move the library to the Bushnell property at 34 Sturges Avenue.

I would like to thank everyone who has given his ideas and help in making the decision to proceed with this acquisition.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Cunning

Robert A. Cunning
Chairman of the Board

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The rest of the OGS year is going to be very busy, so I'd like to divert a bit from my usual "progress reports" and give you some current information about courthouses, public record laws and how we as genealogists can interact with public officials as effectively as possible.

It has, of course, already been determined in Ohio courts that the public records generated within the state of Ohio ARE open to the public during regular office hours. "Open" means, to a large extent, "accessible". For instance, if a county puts its records on microfilm, and uses that microfilm as the public record, then they must provide a microfilm reader to read the film on.

There are exceptions to the above concept, but they are within the realm of "sensitive" information, such as adoptions and insanity cases.

The "teeth" for these public record laws were strengthened in 1985 when it was provided that a person denied access to public records could institute a civil action against the officeholder. If successful, the person could have received up to $1,000 plus reasonable attorney's fees (149.99 O.R.C.).

However, on October 15, 1987, the "teeth" were changed by the repeal of 149.99 O.R.C. Now, a person denied access to public records may commence a mandamus action in the Court of Common Pleas, or the Court of Appeals, or the Ohio Supreme Court. If the writ of mandamus, which is a judicial command to perform a particular act, is granted, the officeholder will have to make the public records available. Also, the officeholder will have to pay the reasonable attorney's fees, stated in 149.43 O.R.C., of the person commencing the action.

Please bear in mind, however, that the above "access to public records law" deals ONLY with persons who actually come to the courthouse or office. Letters and telephone calls legally do NOT have to be responded to by the public employee. We hope, of course, that they will help, but it is NOT required that they do so.

The Ohio Genealogical Society has become more active in the last year or two concerning public records, and it is my sincere hope that we continue to be active in this area, perhaps even joining up with other groups within Ohio that have the same types of needs.

But there is another side to this coin, too, that we as genealogists must not loose sight of. That "other side" is the attitude WE take toward public officials and the records.

If you, as a researcher, need to have access to public records, please do your homework before you start. Know which court is required to keep the records you need, and know whether or not the records were actually required to be kept for the time period you are interested in. For instance, do NOT ask a Probate Court clerk to provide a birth record for 1843 -- those weren't required to be kept in Ohio until 1867!

Know what hours the office you plan to visit will be open; and don't knock on their door five minutes before their normal closing time. You know very well that when they are locking up their money drawers, clearing off their desks and saying "good night" to their fellow employees, they are NOT going to honor your copying requests without feeling very angry -- and can you blame them?

If the prices they charge for copies seem high to you, don't blame the clerk helping you. Pay the charges, and later investigate whether or not they are actually "reasonable"; then determine who sets the rates, and work from there.

Come prepared, if possible, with volume numbers, dates and precise names. When an employee does offer to help you, please react with a smile, and have patience if they do not immediately understand your request. After all, most of the time they are dealing with current problems, and it sometimes takes them a few minutes to "change gears" for you and to locate the older records.

Once you have the book you need, please keep pens away from the original volume, turn the pages carefully, and (of course) do not EVER remove anything from the volume or packet of papers itself! When you are through with the volume, offer to put it back. Finally, say THANK YOU -- and act like you mean it. Remember, the lasting impression public employees get will be from you, and they will treat the next researcher more or less the way they were treated by you.

So what does this all mean? Know what the laws are in regard to public records, be firm about your needs, but be courteous to the employees you meet, and don't ask for the impossible. You will be helping all future researchers who visit that office (and yourself if you ever go back to that same office!).

Julie M. Overton, President
Ohio Genealogical Society

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The January 1988 Executive Committee and Board of Trustees meetings were held in Mansfield, with good weather conditions (except for a mini-blizzard which hit about 3:00 p.m., and which caused several members to leave early). We had a large number present, although there were three who were absent due to recent deaths in their families. Our sincere condolences are extended to Dale Kellogg, Jane Fisher and Florence Main.

The Area Vice-Presidents gave reports, and all noted that their chapters were active and well, with new books continually being published. The Florida Chapter also sent in a report, highlighting their upcoming seminar with Kep Sperry as the keynote speaker.

Considerable time was spent in a report and discussion concerning the 1880 census indexing project. Mary Bowman, of Athens, has taken over the chairmanship of this committee, and has set a tentative deadline for receiving information as September of this year. She still needs help with some counties, so if you are available for some indexing or computer-inputting, please let Mary know as soon as possible. She intends to push hard to get this project finished up.

A new, revised issue of the OGS Chapter Directory is also underway, under the overall supervision of Sunda Peters, our Newsletter Editor. The new book will be printed sometime this coming summer, and will have updated information about each chapter, their publications, and other projects.

The first part of the Board of Trustees meeting, held in the afternoon, centered around finances and the budget preparations for the 1988/1989 budget year which starts this April. After much discussion about where it was all going to come from, the proposed budget was adopted by the Board of Trustees. The budget is a tight one, however, because there isn't even any item called "contingencies" (i.e. an extra pot of money not earmarked for any particular project or committee). So the Trustees will have to watch their monies very carefully this year, in order to keep the OGS and all of its members happy, healthy and hunting!

Butch Ritter reported that he would like some of the F.F.O. savings funds to be used for the expenses involved in the cleaning up and moving into the Bushnell property, and the Board agreed to this use. It was also decided to arrange for a plaque in the new library which will indicate F.F.O.'s involvement in the renovation.

Since the deadline for F.F.O. applications for this year is February 29th's postmark, you MIGHT be too late. Butch is also working on the revised F.F.O. directory which will have all ancestors, their spouses, relevant dates, and the name and address of the F.F.O. members. It WILL include those inducted at the upcoming Convention, and the Directory will be published this summer.

The Revised issues of the Speaker's Bureau, for inclusion in every chapter's Blue Books, was also approved. Watch for it in your chapter mailboxes - and use it to its fullest extent. It will be a great help for chapter program planners. Thanks so much, Jocelyn.

The last big action of the day was the final approval, by the OGS Board of Trustees, of the revised by-laws and standing rules. Copies will now be mailed out to all OGS members, along with a ballot which our members are expected to mark and return. The final results will be announced at the Annual Convention's business meeting. A tremendous amount of talent and work and computer use have gone into this revised set of by-laws, under the overall direction of Lois Phillips. I hope you, our members, do approve of the revised plan, which has been developed to enable the Ohio Genealogical Society to be able to move ahead into our second quarter-century on a legal and smoothly operating basis.

The next Executive Committee and Board of Trustees meeting is scheduled for Mansfield on Saturday, March 26th. If any member of OGS would like to attend, just drop a note to Tom Neel, and he will forward your request to the appropriate person.

One last reminder - if you haven't signed up for this year's Annual Convention, do so last night! The program is really full of interesting topics, and will be climaxed by a river boat cruise Sunday morning. This will be my last Convention as President, and I would love to see EVERY OGS member there so I can thank you in person for your participation!. See you there April 15, 16 and 17.

Julie M. Overton, President
Ohio Genealogical Society

The WAYNE COUNTY CHAPTER, OGS, has recently published a reprint of Baker's 1856 Map of Wayne County. The cost is $3.00. They are located at 546 East Bowman Street, Wooster, Oh 44691.

The group will have Wills, Estates, & Guardianships of Wayne County, Ohio Vol. II, 1852-1900 available in the near future.

They now have nine "Wayne Pioneer Families" members who have proven twenty-three ancestors living in Wayne County in or before 1825.

BUTLER COUNTY CHAPTER, OGS, has inducted five members of First Families of Butler County. Ancestors had to be proven in the county by 1830.

Four publications are available at P. O. Box 2011, Middletown, OH 45044. They are: Calvary Cemetery Grave Inscriptions--$3.50, Amanda Cemetery--$1.50, 1807 Census Butler County--$1.50, and Index of the 1880 Census of Butler County--$12.00. Write them for details of mailing.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR 1880 CENSUS INDEX PROJECT

Progress is being made toward the completion of the 1880 Ohio Census indexing project, but there is much remaining to be done. Volunteers are desperately needed to abstract data from microfilm, to enter that data on a computer (preferably an IBM, IBM-compatible, or a MacIntosh), and/or to proofread. If we can obtain 50 volunteers who will contribute about 100 hours of their time within the next few months, we can establish a completion date of September 1988.

If you don't have access to microfilm, OGS can provide you with a copy. If you don't have 100 hours, we'll settle for less. If you don't have a computer, borrow a friend's. Uncle Sam said it first, but we say it with as much passion, "WE WANT YOU!" Elvis (Presley, of course) also said, "I want you, I need you. . ." We echo those lines and we'll even add the "I love you".

Please write to: Mary L. Bowman, 1880 Census Chairman, 2565 Pleasant Hill Rd., Athens, OH 45701. Mary will help you make a choice of job and county. She will also offer her appreciation.

Is anyone working on WEBB family of Fairfield/Licking Co, OH? Abraham S./F. BENNETT b Reading, PA c1813. Arrived in area in 1830's. In 1840 federal census, his wife was between 30-40 years. Had 3 children: Isaac WEBB BENNETT (1837), Margaret BENNETT (1840) and 'Sweet' William (unk.). 1st wife apparently d before 1849 as a son, John H. BENNETT, was b to Abraham and his 2nd wife, Elizabeth EVANS. A grandson, William Isaac WEBB BENNETT (1872-1950) carried names as well with instructions that all BENNETTS named Isaac also be named WEBB. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Andrew Jefferson McCarty, son of Thomas & Elizabeth (Marshall) McCarty, was born 10 JUL or AUG 1861 in Oil Run, Ohio, according to his obituary in 1948 in Longmont, Colorado.

His next older sibling, Sarah Marcilla, was born in 1858 in Crooksville, Perry Co., and his next younger, Ellsworth, was born in 1868 in Vernon Co., Wisconsin.

Can anyone help us discover where Oil Run is located? The family had previously lived in Morgan Co., where Thomas and Elizabeth were married in 1852.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am issuing all of our OGS members an invitation to participate in developing the overall direction of our lively organization. We are, after all, a growing, lively, challenging group (one of the largest of our kind in the county), and we are always moving and changing. We do, however, need YOUR help in guiding us as we move toward the close of this century. I'd like, first of all, to give you a few examples of how we have progressed during the last twenty years.

A copy of The Report of just over 25 years ago is in front of me. Still in a newspaper format, the feature article by Paul Massa (then Chairman of the OGS Military History Committee) was a biography of general Morgan of Civil War fame. An article on the 1962 Convention indicated the meeting was held at the new headquarters building at 454 Park Avenue West (part of the office building of Dr. William Houston). Although no attendance figure was cited, apparently the entire convention was held in that converted house. That issue of The Report was four newspaper-sized pages long, and was packed with information, such as Bible and cemetery records and (of course!) queries.

The issue of The Report for June, 1968 (almost twenty years ago now) featured a notice about the awards given by OGS to three Ohio newspaper reporters for their recent stories about past Ohioans. The same issue had a large photograph of the new OGS President, Mrs. Robert M. Conner, along with an article by Randolph C. Downes on the history of Toledo. But, again, some things stay the same - queries were included, as was a column entitled "We Have Read", written by Robert Cunning!

Some things they mention in those early Reports are "no longer with us" - some types of awards, many honorary memberships, and in-depth historical information. Other concepts are still in operation - queries, cemetery records and convention reports. But what is really important is that as we continue to grow, we must continually evaluate what we have done, what we are currently involved with, and what we might like to do in the future. And that's where your invitation fits into the picture - VOTE!

Enclosed with this Newsletter you will find a ballot for voting for new officers and trustees, along with short biographical sketches about each candidate. Although there are not too many contested elections this year, there are some - and those are especially important for you to consider. If a candidate is an incumbent, ask yourself if you want them to continue in office (Have they done a good job? Can they answer questions about their position?). If you do not know them, or if there are names that are new to you, read over the information about them. Ask them about their ideas about the future direction they would like to see OGS go toward. By the way, since there is very little time to vote (only a few weeks), you probably should try and talk to them in person or on the telephone.

Once you've done your election homework, please take your ballot, mark it, and send it back to OGS by the deadline of April 6th. After all, a democracy like we have here in the United States is a very special, but fragile, system. It depends on the educated input of all its citizens for its government and its direction. The Ohio Genealogical Society is no different. Voting for the officers and trustees of your choice is not only a privilege, it is a responsibility.

Once you have voted, then please do continue to participate in the Ohio Genealogical Society's activities and programs. After all, you have all paid your membership dues, so you might as well get as much benefit from us as you can. Send in queries for the Newsletter; compile articles for the Report; help index; use our "new" headquarters library; come to meetings both at the chapter and state level - and above all, help others - and you will be helping both yourselves and the OGS.

The bottom line? This is YOUR organization. Participate by making your decision about the new officer and trustee slots that are open - and send in your votes as soon as possible. And, of course, if you have not sent in your Convention Registration - "hustle your bustle" and send it in! Time does fly. I'll see you there.

Julie M. Overton, President
Ohio Genealogical Society

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Regarding the question in the February newsletter, page 32: C. W. Abbott of Newark, Ohio, says that Oil Run, Ohio, must be a stream, rather than a town. He says that it is not listed in PO's of Ohio, Bullenger 1876, or the 1862 list of U. S. PO's. Perhaps it was Ohlton, which is located south of Niles, but that is rather far-fetched, as it is not on a direct line from Perry County. Thank you, Mr. Abbott. Has anyone else found Oil Run, Ohio?

You are cordially invited to attend a reception to celebrate the grand opening of the new library and headquarters of
The Ohio Genealogical Society
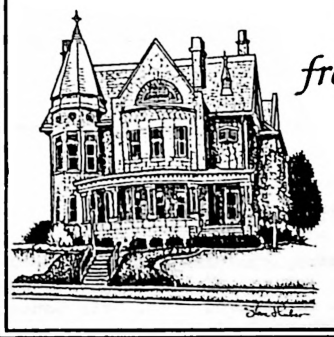
on Sunday, the twenty-sixth of June nineteen hundred and eighty-eight from one to four-thirty in the afternoon



The Bushnell House
34 Sturges Avenue
Mansfield, Ohio

MANSFIELD - An elegant turn-of-the-century sandstone house is the new home of the Ohio Genealogical Society and its library.

Ohioans are invited to tour the lovely Bushnell House from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m. on June 26th. The event marks the grand opening of the Society's new home at 34 Sturges Avenue and celebrates Genealogy Week in Mansfield.

The Society's offices will be on the first floor of the Bushnell House, a home listed on the National Register and adorned with richly carved oak and cherry woodwork, stained glass windows, and ornate plastered ceilings.

The Society's library will be housed in a modern first-story brick addition to the rear of the old home, where there is plenty of room for the library's extensive holdings and a sunny, spacious area for family historians to do their work.

The grand home, which has become a research center for genealogists, was originally built as the showplace residence of Martin Bushnell.

A prominent businessman and philanthropist, Bushnell is also remembered for donating the monument to Johnny Appleseed that still stands in Mansfield's South Park. Bushnell spared no expense when he had a fine home built for his wife on a hillside west of downtown.

Nearly 100 years later, the home with the tall corner tower and wide veranda is still a showplace. Despite remodelings into a travel bureau and a funeral home, Mansfield's largest stone house retains its feeling of craftsmanship.

The massive home, with high ceilings and richly decorated fireplaces, was built with blocks of locally-quarried sandstone marbled with striking red striations.

The entire third floor of the home was a ballroom where the Bushnell daughters reportedly entertained with stringed orchestras and where grandchildren on roller skates later rocked the chandeliers downstairs.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Two things to write about in this, my last message to you as President of the Ohio Genealogical Society, come to mind: the Convention and a summary of my four years in office.

The Convention turned out to be a tremendous success, with 615 members and friends in attendance - our highest number ever. A signficant portion of the registrants had never been to an OGS Convention before, which is very exciting to me. The success of the Convention was due in large part to the Convention workers, with Pat Donaldson as Chairman. Everyone worked really hard, the program was extensive, the speakers were great, the "after-meeting cruise" was lots of fun. My sincere and deep thanks go out to ALL those who made the 27th annual Convention such a success!

The second part of this month's message is both "sad" and "glad". In a very real way, I'm sad that these four years are over. I have made so many new friends; I have heard about exciting new projects; I have tried to solve some problems. I'm, of course, also glad that it is all over - which theoretically should mean more free time for things like research, work, and family.

I would like to share with you some of the things that have been especially important to me and to OGS. The most important of these items was the complete revision of the OGS Constitution (now called the By-Laws). We had operated fairly well under the old one, but so many changes had been made over the years that it sort of resembled a patch-work quilt. What the Board really did was to revise the document so that there are no conflicts, so that it is legal in every detail possible, and so that it will work for us during many years to come.

The most visible change during the last four years has been the move to a much larger headquarters facility for our society. We had contemplated many different options (as you may remember), but in the end, the move to the former Bushnell property will benefit all members of OGS. There is room for all kinds of storage, the library is open and spacious, and there is space for our staff to occasionally close their door so they can get some real work done (have you ever tried to do "thinking work" with constant interruptions?). The "new" facility even has space for a small lounge and for OGS meetings. I do hope you visit soon, and also come to the Open House on June 26th.

The other really visible change has been our moving around - at first with just the Board meetings being held in different towns across the state, and more recently with the Conventions (next year's is planned for Independence, Ohio, just south of Cleveland). I think that has encouraged a lot more participation by members who otherwise would not have been able to attend our Grand Meeting of the Year.

Participation goes hand in hand with communications, and that is another facet of OGS that I have tried to improve. My long messages were used to convey to you the progress of the organization, and even on occasion, what the problems were. You responded beautifully to our few problems, and you cheered us on when you thought we were on the right track. For that, I really thank each and every one of you.

The Leadership Seminars I developed were perhaps the most obvious programs that have been added during my four years. Even those were really inspired by the members who felt strongly enough about their need for help in the techniques of running a chapter to write or call me. All I did was to jell your ideas, and make something workable. We have had about 45 chapters attend these meetings so far; I hope more chapters attend these each year.

Beyond this, there are lots of small things I have tried to work on. Some turned out well, while others "sank like a lead weight", but that's the way things work out. I have already given your new President, Jeanne Pramaggiore, a list of the things that I never had time to get around to starting and some thoughts about those "lead weights". My responsibility now will be simply to sit back and let Jeanne do the things she feels are best for The Ohio Genealogical Society. I am certain she will do a great job for you.

Last, of course, I simply must extend my deep thanks to all of you out there, whether you are a chapter program planner, a member of the OGS Board, my employer (Greene Co. District Library), a participating member, or my family. All of you have contributed in one way or another to the well-being of our organization - and without YOU, I could never have done very much at all. So, to all of you out there -- THANK YOU!

Julie M. Overton
Immediate Past President, O.G.S.

Long a Mansfield landmark, the home now will serve as statewide headquarters for one of the largest genealogical organizations in the nation. The Ohio Genealogical Society has 87 county chapters in Ohio, 6,200 members from 50 states and 6 countries, and 2 out-of-state chapters.

The OGS Library is one of the major genealogical libraries in the state, with family history materials that can be found nowhere else. The Society owns 10,000 volumes, plus numerous records from family Bibles, the early Ohio courts, and the original 1880 census of Ohio.

Use of the OGS Library is free to anyone doing family research. Last year, over 3,000 patrons from 26 states came to trace family roots. Hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 9 to 5.

The Bushnell House is easily reached by taking the Ohio 13 exit off I-71 to downtown Mansfield and turning west on Park Avenue to the five (5) way light. Sturges Avenue runs alongside the Davs Inn Motel.

For further information about OGS and its library and a map to the Bushnell House, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Tom Neel, c/o OGS, P.O. Box 2625, Mansfield, Ohio 44906 or call (419) 522-9077.

EDITOR'S NOTE: You might refer to the map included in the April OGS NEWSLETTER. We hope to see you June 26 at the Bushnell House in Mansfield.

FOLLOW-UP TO COMPUTER GENEALOGY AT THE O G S CONVENTION

Woody Trautman, Toledo OH

CONVENTION ACTIVITY

With our increasing use of personal computers for genealogy, at State and National Genealogical Conventions many sessions are now devoted to 'computer' topics.

Examples are: selection of hardware, comparison of genealogy software, computer indexing, overcoming limitations on size of database or memory, flexibility of searching and reporting, accessing electronic bulletin boards and use of research software. Vendors and speakers alike are effectively using personal computers in their presentations.

The recent OGS Convention had four such sessions, all well-attended. In addition, about 40 'involved' computer genealogists gathered for an ad hoc rap session, and most signed up for continuing activities - whatever might develop. This note is a first follow-up, to indicate some possibilities and to invite persons with further interest, ideas and/or time to devote to next steps, to contact me, Woody Trautman, 2625 Middlesex, Toledo OH 43606, phone 419-535-7436.

COMPUTER AS GENEALOGICAL TOOL

One need not be a computer technician or have sophisticated hardware and software to gain the benefits of using his/her personal computer in developing and printing family history. The following functional software modules can be used separately or together and one need not 'graduate' from one to another:

(a) wordprocessor - for notes, final copy, correspondence, and listings with sort capability depending on the particular package;

(b) database or spreadsheet - individual records for each person, family or event, which can be sorted for research and/or other purposes and then formatted for reporting. If the package is programmable the lineage relationship may be introduced to permit printing of genealogical charts, tables or lists;

(c) general genealogy package - this is a database including the lineage relationship and special 'user-friendly' input screens focussed on family groups, individuals or events, a linked note capability, and of course reporting of text and charts;

(d) research genealogy package - whether linked with item (c) or separate, this software facilitates finding relationships among families, people and events; and

(e) communications - with a modem and its software a wealth of genealogical data can be accessed on national networks and noted on paper, if none of the other software is available.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Special Interest Groups (SIGs) associated with Genealogical Societies can offer a medium of mutual support and also can undertake projects which benefit genealogists in general. The Objectives of SIGs generally include:

(a) helping members 'technically' to get the most from their systems,

(b) pooling technical and manual efforts to put relevant personal and public genealogical data in shareable computer-readable form, and

(c) exploiting computer communications via diskette and modem to tap wider resources on a real-time basis.

SIG projects can form around each Objective. For example, in getting resource material into computer-searchable form, OGS needs computer help with its 1880 census project. And libraries now putting archival material on computer only to format the printed output could be encouraged to make the diskettes available for computer searching.

Geographically, participants can meet in small numbers in homes to share 'on-site', as a group with a speaker as an extension of a Genealogical Society meeting, as a multi-county Group affiliated with several societies and with a mixture of attendance and projects via mail and phone, and as collective participants from 'everywhere' on computer bulletin board messaging or real-time conferencing (eg NGC BBSs, GEnie, CompuServe).

PARTICIPATION IN SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

The SIG here in the northwest Ohio region invites 'external' members, and perhaps also the two SIGs in the Columbus area. There was a strong interest at OGS from the Cincinnati-Dayton and Cleveland- Akron areas, and the OGS project leader is in Athens. So computer genealogy could be further encouraged in these five divisions of the state with possible linkage to OGS. This Newsletter might continue to carry a page for 'us'.

I look forward to hearing from you with suggestions, technical items of interest, and possibly your desire to be added to the mailing lists of particular SIGs. May your computer be the tool of your expectations!

LOST AND FOUND

The BARRUCH, BANKS, BANCKS, and PARCEL family files were discovered missing from our vertical file collection at OGS headquarters. If any of the items were taken by accident, please return them. See the address on the front cover. Thank you!

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Regarding the question on page 38, March 1988 OGS newsletter: Charles Woodburn of McConnelsville, Ohio, replied that Oil Spring Run flows into the Muskingum River near the intersection of Ohio State Route 669 and Malta Twp. Rd. 199 on the west side of the Muskingum River about two miles north of the village of Malta in Morgan County. At one time the one-room Oil Springs School was located on the stream, but it was destroyed by the 1913 flood.

Mr. K. Haybron Adams adds that it is located in Sections 11 and 14, Deerfield Twp., Morgan County. Deerfield Twp. Rd. 195 crosses the run just southeast of Tridelphia. He recommends Robertson's History of Morgan County, which has many entries for this family in the index. He also recommends Place Names Directory: Southeast Ohio compiled by Madge R. Fitak. State of Ohio Department of Natural Resources Div. of Geological Survey, Columbus, 1980, p. 34.

Thanks very much, all of you who wrote to help answer this question.

QUESTION: Ohio laws required the certification of physicians by 1853. Where would one look to find these physician certificates?

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello! I'm your new President and am looking forward to the next two years. I want to thank you for your support and cooperation and hope that you will continue to support us - the Board, the Officers, and Committee Chairmen - as we guide your - the members - organization.

After the fantastic OGS Convention at Kings Island, I left, a week later, to attend the National Genealogical Conference in Biloxi, Mississippi. This was the second largest conference they have had - the largest was in Salt Lake City in 1985. Over 1500 attended. It was a very well planned and organized conference with many good speakers on a variety of topics - something for everybody. I met a lot of people and got a lot of good ideas for our organization. Congratulations to the German Genealogical Society of America for winning the Newsletter competition in the Class III category.

At our meeting May 21, 1988, Ruth Niederhoff of Fulton County was appointed Recording Secretary and Carolyn Heydinger, President of Crawford County, was appointed Corresponding Secretary with the approval of the Board. Nancy Applebee (Lorain County) will be our Annual Convention Chairman. The Convention will be held in Independence, Ohio (just off I-77 in Cuyahoga County) April 28 and 29, 1989. Mark those dates on your calendar.

Sunda Peters will continue as Editor of the OGS Newsletter and Carol Bell will continue as Editor of The Report, as well as Bill Houston, who will continue as Editor of Ohio Records and Pioneer Families. So, your publications are in good hands. You will get a complete list of all the Committee Chairmen.

There are two things that I want to call to your attention. First, the Leadership Seminar will be held July 30th (we must have been looking at the wrong calendar) at the Delaware Joint Vocational School in Delaware. Our thanks to Alice Baker and the Delaware Chapter for again hosting us this year. We will have a national speaker at this Seminar. The Board approved our having Mr. Charles Stuck, Jr., an NGS Councillor and NGS Chairman for the 1989 Conference in the States (which will be held in St. Paul, MN) speak on "Rooting Around the Money Tree: Society Fund Raising and Financial Management". He gave this talk in Biloxi and we were very impressed and think you will get a lot of help from this talk.

Secondly, the Board approved plans for an OGS Tour to Washington, D.C., October 2 through 9, 1988. Phyllis Miller, OGS Trustee, will be the Tour Director. Watch for further information in your Newsletter.

We are all settled in the Bushnell House now - all the carpeting is in and it looks very nice. Plan to attend the Open House June 26th and see for yourself - everyone who comes in is impressed with the Library and there is "elbow room". If you can't make the Open House, call and make arrangements for a tour.

Jeanne Pramaggiore, President
Ohio Genealogical Society

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

In response to the query in the last OGS Newsletter, requesting identification of the "white, gravy-like substance" served at the Friday evening banquet, OGS Convention, the answer is: The chef's interpretation of Pat Donaldson's creamed white onions! Pat's recipe follows:

Par-boil small white onions whole (if very large, cut in halves or quarters) until tender in slightly salted water. Prepare a thick cream sauce using butter, flour and milk. Drain off most of the liquid from the onions. Combine onions and cream sauce, add salt and pepper to taste.

OHIO & MIDWEST 'HOW-TO' WORKSHOP ON COMPUTER GENEALOGY

Toledo Ohio : March 31 - April 2, 1989

June 1988 Call for Contributors & Workers

Woody Trautman

PURPOSE

With the rapid increase in our use of personal computers and our accompanying interest in exploiting their use for family history, a practical, 'how-to' workshop is currently being planned in Northwest Ohio. Its purpose is to help attendees (from newcomer to specialist) increase their effectiveness via talks by national leaders, panel discussions, PROCEEDINGS, demonstrations, instruction, personal problem-solving and computer genealogy vendor displays. Computer searches may be possible on diskette and national genealogy network of electronic bulletin boards. And contacts made should facilitate continuing data exchanges and organization of a next computer genealogy 'how-to' workshop.

ORGANIZERS

Members of the DATASHARE COMPUTER GENEALOGY SUPPORT GROUP based in Toledo Ohio are providing the initial leadership. They come from many parts of the 19 county northwest Ohio region and bordering counties of Indiana and Michigan. They invite anyone else from Ohio or beyond to join in the continuing organization and implementation of this noteworthy workshop. In addition, 'affiliate sponsorships' are invited by genealogy societies and genealogy-related hardware/software user groups and vendors. Please indicate your interest in participating by contacting Woody Trautman, 2625 Middlesex, Toledo Ohio, phone 419-535-7436.

FORMAT

Two days are needed to permit in-depth discussions, practice and opportunity for contact with new topics. The program would begin with mixer and opening session Friday night and conclude early Sunday afternoon. This duration facilitates travel timing and (because of overnight rooms) it also reduces the cost of motel meeting rooms. Overnight rates can be under $35/double. Registration fee may be about $50 plus evening meals, PROCEEDINGS and special instruction sessions. These costs are based on an expected attendance of 200 (with half taking overnight rooms), on partial subsidy of national presenters, telephone/modem and computer(s), and on secure facilities for vendor displays.

PROGRAM

In addition to plenary sessions by national presenters (including opening and closing), four parallel tracks are contemplated: Newcomer, User, Specialist and Instruction. The following descriptions indicate topics to provide a balance for each series - comments and suggestions are welcome. Presenters or panelists are invited to address the selected topics and will be requested to prepare a written version in advance for publication in the PROCEEDINGS to be distributed at the Workshop. If you are interested or wish to suggest someone to be invited please contact me soon.

PROGRAM TRACKS

Newcomer: Advantages of Using a Personal Computer for Family History; Comparison of Software; Comparison of Hardware; Organizing Information and Data Input; Charts, Reports and Formulating Needed Queries; Notes and Writing the Family History;...

User: Comparison and Coupling of Wordprocessor/Database and Genealogy Software; Exploiting the Capabilities of Your Current Software for Genealogy; Transferring Data between Software Packages - ASCII, ARC and GEDCOM; Indexing; Computer Communications - Bulletin Boards and Networks, including Conferencing and Tafel Matching;...

Specialist: Genealogy Databases Already Available in Computer Format; For Librarians and Society Publishers - Preparing material on Diskette for Computer Usage; For Professional Family Historians - Using One's Computer for Research and Publishing; Techniques for Transferring Files to and from Bulletin Boards and Networks; For Genealogy Bulletin Board SysOps - Handling Local, NGC and Tafel Matching Needs;...

Instruction: Depending on proper arrangements for multiple equipments and software, for instructors and sufficient enrolments, separate 1-2 hour hands-on sessions will be conducted on the major genealogy software packages. Similarly, practice will be provided in using a genealogy Bulletin Board and a Network. And an informal problem-solving room will (hopefully) be staffed continuously to provide personal help with computer genealogy (and Tafel) questions. Further 'operations' suggestions are welcome as well as offers to help staff these activities....

NEXT STEPS

The 'How-To' Workshop of the scope sketched above is a major undertaking which requires the efforts of a number of dedicated volunteers. Now, as prerequisite to confirming facilities and national presenters, we need to be assured of likely contributors, attendees and workers. Therefore, I would appreciate a postcard response from readers and from a representative of each Society (address in second paragraph). Please indicate numbers of likely attendees from your locality, and also who specifically would be interested in contributing and/or helping. This Workshop promises to be a FIRST for the region!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Open House at OGS Headquarters was held June 16, 1988. I was sorry I was not able to attend but the date conflicted with my own family activities - a niece was married in New Jersey on the 24th and then I spent a week at camp with my sisters at Point au Rouche, New York, on Lake Champlain, before attending our family reunion on July 3rd. I hope you all had an opportunity to attend and see our new Headquarters -- we are very proud of it. I have asked Mary Jane Henney, Chairman of the Open House Committee, to write an article about the Open House which will appear elsewhere in this Newsletter. If you could not attend, do plan to visit soon.

While on the subject of New York State, for those of you researching there, did you know that each county has an Historian? If you write to the County Historian and enclose a SASE, they will reply. If your ancestors were of French-Canadian descent in Northern New York, you may get some help from the Clinton County Historian in Plattsburg, NY.

I think you should all be aware of (State) House Bill 790 which has passed the House. The first Senate hearing was held May 25th. This was the sponsor hearing and proponent and opponent hearings will be held, but at present, are not scheduled and will probably not take place until after the election. There will be more information on this in the next Newsletter.

The Leadership Seminar will be held July 30th at the Delaware Joint Vocational School - where it was held last year. Flyers will be sent out to all Chapters. There will be four sessions with four topics each session. The topics will cover various aspects of chapter activities so you are encouraged to bring at least four people from each chapter so each topic can be covered.

This year we will leave the "potluck" choice to you. Rather than assign dishes to certain districts, we will let you use your imagination. Just be sure that the dish you bring is enough to feed 8-10 people. The dishes should be either a main dish, a salad, a vegetable, or a dessert. Beverages, rolls and butter will be provided. Bring a plate and tableware, also.

Questions have arisen concerning filing Form 990 with the Internal Revenue Service. If you have a gross income of $25,000 or more, you must file a Form 990 - that is gross income and not net income. This has apparently caused some confusion. I hope this answers some questions.

Jeanne Pramaggiore, President
Ohio Genealogical Society

OPEN HOUSE

On Sunday, June 26th, The Ohio Genealogical Society celebrated its move into the Bushnell House, 34 Sturges Avenue, Mansfield, Ohio, with an Open House. Hundreds of people entered through the Library which is housed in the annex at the rear of the beautiful old sandstone house. Here they viewed the shiny new library shelves that hold more than twice the amount of books that were housed in our old library. Volunteers then guided them through the vast rooms of the gracious old home built in 1893. There they admired the softly carved cherry, oak and sycamore woodwork, the stained glass and the silver hardware on each of the old hinges, drawer pulls and door plates.

Light refreshments were served and displays of the work of the society were enjoyed.

It was a lovely party and visitors attended from Michigan, Washington, Florida, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, New York and Argentina, as well as Ohio.

Won't you please come visit us when you're in the area?

CORRECTION

Paul L. White, of Mansfield, Ohio, has informed us that there is an inaccuracy in an article on page 66 of the May 1988 issue of the OGS NEWSLETTER. The monument to Johnny Appleseed which stands in South Park is a replica of the original, which was dedicated where it was placed in Middle Park.

The original monument given by Bushnell was located in a field near Alta, apparently discarded by someone. It is now stored at the Parks Service Building. Lois McCullough also noted our inaccuracy. We thank you both.

SPECIAL NOTES

Shirley Thompson, Ancestor Card Chairman, has asked that those who have sent in their ancestor cards during the past three months and have not heard from her please be patient. Shirley had a death in the family and a grandchild's illness , which kept her from her volunteer job at OGS. She believes that she will be caught up in about six weeks. Shirley thanks you for your understanding and patience. We thank her for her efforts in our behalf.

.....THE GENEALOGIST AND THE COMPUTER.....

George R. Cryder * and Woody Trautman **

A. ORIENTATION

NOTE: The Computer Interest Group (CIG) of the OGS is comprised of members using or desiring to use personal computers in pursuit of their genealogical activities and who help, as possible, each other and the OGS officers, projects and chapters to apply and enhance their use of computers. George Cryder is the retiring chairman of CIG and Woody Trautman is its incoming chairman. We have gleaned the following from our files and hope it will be helpful although by no means complete. We invite your comments and contributions for forthcoming issues of this newsletter.

* * * *

The advent of the personal computer has opened a completely new world to the Genealogist, Family Historian, and compiler of historical data. Then with the fantastic drop in prices coupled with the tremendous growth in technology, we now have this ever so useful tool affordable to both the professional and amateur researcher.

But why use a computer? Some of us are delighted with the discipline it urges over our customary piles and haphazard notebooks. Others find that computer organization and rapid resorting of data helps relate persons and events and unravel ancestral lines. And of course report and chart formats and editing of final text are invaluable helps. Finally, in this new computer & communications era source material will become more readily accessible and more quickly useable.

To take full advantage of this 'new tool' several initial decisions must be made. First one must determine exactly what one wishes to accomplish in the way of end results. One need not be a programmer, just a user of much fine software that is available. A program to store, manipulate, and produce a final usable printout tops the list....

Many genealogy-specific database programs have been produced with over 50 now available. These Genealogy programs range in price from $100 to $250, with one exception ...PERSONAL ANCESTRAL FILE (PAF) available for only $35. Some of the factors to be considered in making a choice include: inputs, reports, notes and research, use of images: whether drawing, diagrams or photos, and the possibilities for current or future file interchange with other programs and/or researchers.

Of the many commercial genealogy programs, PAF has some 40,000 users, ROOTS II about 14,000 users, and FAMILY ROOTS about 15,000 users. Many programs have special features that facilitate file interchange (via GEDCOM format). These permit the transfer of your data to a separate database manager (perhaps on a different computer) and thence to other desired reports. Since the sponsor of PAF, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, is so very deeply in the collecting and sharing of genealogical data, this program has become the focal point of this type of operation. Using PATHWAY will enable communication from PAF to other programs to enable use of their special features.

To gain access to computer stored genealogy data via the phone line, other software will be necessary. Such programs may not be part of your genealogy package. There are many good commercial programs available as well as good programs from the 'Shareware' or the 'public domain' collections at very reasonable costs. The only other costs will be a modem to connect your computer to the phone line, and 'user fees' for time spent on the networks. Many times these additional costs can be justified because of the increased breadth of contacts, supplementary data files, and the savings in time for surname search (using for example the tiny-tafel matching program).

B. COMPUTER GENEALOGY SUPPORT GROUPS

With the increasing use of personal computers by family historians, interest is mounting in Special Interest Groups focused on Computer Genealogy. At State and National Genealogical Conventions many sessions are now devoted to topics such as comparison of genealogy software, computer indexing, overcoming limitations on size of database, feasibility of searching and reporting, accessing electronic bulletin boards and on research software.

The April OGS Convention was no exception. In addition to the computer sessions about 40 interested persons convened for an ad hoc rap session and 25 signed up for continuing activities - whatever might develop. These newsletter articles and helping to get Support Groups going in various parts of the state are examples. Your suggestions and offers of help are welcome.

We know of Computer SIGs associated with OGS chapters in Hamilton, Franklin and Delaware counties. In the greater Toledo area the Group is developing with multiple chapter links. A Cleveland Group plans to be convened this September and persons from the Mansfield and Dayton areas have indicated interest. Conveners are listed below and interested persons should contact them - and also access the local Bulletin Board Systems where given for further information.

The objectives of SIGs generally include (a) helping each other get the most from their systems, (b) pooling efforts to place relevant data in shareable computer readable form, and (c) exploiting computer communications for genealogy.

Workshops and projects may develop, especially on objective (b), and workers are always needed, even though geographically separated. For example, the OGS is working on the 1880 Census with helpers and their computers in and out of Ohio. Diskettes will be forwarded for compilation on a central computer in Athens.

As another example, Chapters are producing data in newsletter or booklet form, increasingly with word processing programs instead of typewriter. This data needs to be saved on diskette and assembled with similar data, indexed and distributed for computer access. We welcome other examples, suggestions and offers of help.

D. SHAREWARE and PUBLIC DOMAIN SOFTWARE for PC/MS-DOS

Software placed in the Public Domain by authors may be copied freely by anyone....HOWEVER... Many of the better programs have been presented as 'Shareware' or user-supported programs (sometimes called 'Freeware' but not really...).

The concept behind 'Shareware' software is this: The programs are copyrighted by the authors and all rights are retained by them under the copyright laws... BUT the autors do allow the distribution of their programs freely and with very few restrictions. Once you acquire copies from Bulletin Boards, Users Groups, etc, you may look at, keep, try out, copy etc. but if you use them, then you should register your use with the authors.

In most cases a registration fee is required, ranging from $5 to $90 or more for a complete program. In return you get (depending upon the authors' policies) a bound manual, quick reference cards, update notices, free updates, telephone support, source codes, more powerful versions, customizations and other goodies that they develop in the future. In most situations the registration fee that you are asked to pay is far less than the price of comparable commercial software.

The 'Shareware' concept has many advantages....you get a chance to test the software on your own computer to make sure that it works and does what you want or expect it to do, before you 'buy' it by paying the registration fee.

Remember, registration ensures that you will know of updates, bug fixes, etc, that you can get support from the author, and that you can help them make their programs more useful.

Check out the following listing of supplemental Shareware programs, the non-genealogy programs which may be useful in following your hobby (or vocation) in the field of genealogy. Note specifically the database, spreadsheet, wordprocessing (including spelling checker), mailing list, membership management and printing programs, etc.

The Shareware listed below is available on diskette(s) from:

Genealogy Computer Users Group
Delaware County Chapter, OGS
P. O. Box 1126
Delaware, Ohio, 43015-1126

at $3.50 donation (1 disk programs) for all titles, unless followed by (2) for which the donation is $7.00 (2 disk programs). Please specify 5 1/4 or 3 1/2 in diskettes.

Shareware of a more limited scope is available for other computers from other sources. See the last two entries above under 'Magazines, Books and Services'.

INMEMORIAM

The Ohio Genealogical Society has been blessed with outstanding and devoted volunteers. One who stood tall in our minds and hearts was David Morris (1904-1988).

David worked as a volunteer in the library on Saturdays for a long number of years and will be remembered, by those he served, for his generosity and his smile.

David died on June 19 and was buried beside his wife, Laverne, at Radnor Cemetery, Prospect, Ohio on June 22.

We loved David and will miss him.

OHIO DAUGHTERS OF 1812

In response to numerous inquiries, a progress report is in order for those who submitted family group sheets to this organization.

The past two years, family group sheets have been collected for 1812 soldiers with Ohio connections. The veteran could have served from OH, lived here for any time, or died here.

The response was overwhelming, and the material is still being processed. All the group sheets are being retyped into a single format, then will be every-name indexed. Publication plans are as yet indefinite, but the goal is to have the book in print by 1990. It is estimated that the book will contain material on over 1000 families and have over 20,000 names. Those who submitted material will be notified individually once the publication plans are completed.

This book is not to be confused with the most recent publication of the OH Daughters of 1812. This newest book, INDEX TO THE GRAVE RECORDS OF SERVICEMEN OF THE WAR OF 1812, STATE OF OHIO, is a revision of the previously published indexes, as well as more than 600 recently-located graves. This book is available at a cost of $27 plus $2 postage from Ruth Feltz, 2650 West Market, Apt. 207 B, Lima, OH 45805.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Board met on July 23rd at Headquarters in Mansfield and considerable time was spent on (State) House Bill 790. By now you should have received a letter and I hope you have contacted your Senators and Representatives. If not, please do. We do want public records to remain open in Ohio. We will keep you informed on the progress of this bill.

OGS will have a booth at the National Genealogical Convention in St. Paul, MN, May 17-20, 1989. Several members plan to attend and our past president, Julie Overton, will be a speaker. If you are planning to attend, do stop by the OGS booth.

The Brecksville-Cuyahoga Genealogical Society Chapter of OGS, has changed its name to Cuyahoga Valley Chapter, OGS. The address remains the same.

Jana Broglin, Chairman of the Education Committee, reported packets will be sent out in August for the 1989 OGS Essay Contest. There are some changes - there will be two categories next year - ages 9-13 and 14-18. Let's all work to make this contest bigger and better than ever.

A check for over $7,000, proceeds of the 1988 Convention, was sent to OGS by Pat Donaldson, Chairman of the 1988 Convention. $1,500 was realized from the sale of log cabins and baskets and this will be used for library equipment.

The tax-exempt information in the Blue Book is outdated. It will be updated soon but in the meantime, do not rely on it.

A microfiche reader-printer was purchased for the Library from the Ohio Records and Pioneer Families funds. The all new IGI will be purchased as soon as it is available (around September) from these funds, also.

Dale Kellogg, Executive Vice-President, is the liaison for out-of-state Chapters and members. If you have any questions, problems, or wish to form a Chapter in your area, contact Dale at 221 Lexington Ave., Elyria, OH 44035 or give him a call at 216-366-8121.

Florence Main has had to resign as Librarian and that position is very capably being filled by Kay Hudson. She reported 256 books and 4 rolls of microfilm have been acquired since the last Board Meeting, May 21st.

Has your Chapter submitted updates for the new Chapter Directory? If not, please get them in for the September publication deadline. Sunda Peters, Newsletter Editor, is updating the Directory.

Phyllis Miller, Tour Chairman, has had to move the Washington, D.C. tour back one week. It will be October 9-16. The official date for Columbus Day is October 10th but the Library of Congress will be open from 8:45 to 5:30 so no research day will be lost.

We also need help in "wrapping up" the 1880 census. Mary Bowman is the Chairman of this Committee and if you can help in any way, won't you drop her a line at 2565 Pleasant Hill Rd., Athens, OH 45701 or call her at 614-592-4011?

The Leadership Seminar July 30th at Delaware JVS, Delaware, OH was a BIG success. 87 people representing 34 counties attended. There will be a followup on this in the next Newsletter.

Jeanne Pramaggiore, President
Ohio Genealogical Society

It is the responsibility of someone within the chapter to keep these pages of new information added to the BLUEBOOK so that it remains current.

EXPANDING THE OGS COMPUTER INTEREST GROUP*

For several years the OGS Board has had a "Computer Advisory Committee" to advise and assist headquarters and statewide projects on the use of computers, as well as helping members with problems and county societies with computer programs. In addition, George Cryder, then chairman, assisted headquarters rehabilitate computers and files following lightning interference.

At the April 1988 OGS Conference, a number of members indicated their desire for an increased and continuing OGS activity in genealogical computing. One response has been articles in this newsletter--an overview, publicity for a forthcoming workshop in northwest Ohio and a lengthy compilation of computing resources. Future articles can report regional meetings, provide computing questions and answers, and publish your own contributions.

As current chairman, I have received requests for new regional meetings and computer programs at county society meetings. Also, planning procedes on a northwest Computer Genealogy Workshop March 31--April 2, 1988, with such activity, the OGS Board in July requested a suggestion for its September meeting on projected activities of the current computer interest group and on the desired relationship between the workshop and the Ohio Genealogical Society. It is important for me to have your views, because computer interest group (CIG) activities appear to fit more a state than a county organization pattern.

Working with genealogical data in computer format continues as our central mutual focus and activity. The three related tasks are:

a) exploiting use of computer systems for personal and society needs,
b) compilation of data in computer format (prepared for personal use and society newsletters and books) for later computer searching, and
c) the actual use of such data in batch or real time computer mode (data computerization).

Please comment on these (and your own additions), because they will guide formation of CIG projcts. The following section briefly introduces examples of CIG projects.

Discussion at the July OGS Board meeting emphasized the importance of data computerization projects. The OGS 1880 Ohio Census Indexing Project is in its compilation stage. Individuals expressed interest in cemetery and church projects at state and local levels. Formats should be shared (or designed) for the later widest usefulness. The DataShare ComGen Support Group in NWO has started a project to inventory material in print in NWO and to suggest the gaps yet to be filled. A companion project focuses on related computer matters.

The OGS CIG could take leadership in furthering such computerization activities. I can serve as a temporary clearinghouse for information on computer projects now underway or being planned, in Ohio or elsewhere. Please volunteer to participate, and indicate your particular interest (project design, technical matters, data input, etc.).

WORKSHOP

The Northwest Ohio Weekend Workshop on Computer Genealogy was described in the June OGS Newsletter. I invite your comments on whether this should be a CIG project and/or become a periodic event. Your input is welcome on program topics which would meet your needs and open up more frontiers.

REGIONAL MEETINGS

On a regional or local level, the CIG might have several vice chairmen to obtain speakers on computer topics for society meetings and to help organize other computer support groups around the state. Please tell me what groups exist now, what groups are needed and/or which new groups would welcome help.

NETWORK

A final example CIG project on computer communications will maintain our focus on the essence and the future of computer genealogy. The centerpiece is a network for local electronic bulletin boards (BBS) throughout Ohio, with connection to the national genealogy network. Several already exist, but are not part of a "CIG project". Perhaps Mansfield headquarters could be a node. Concurrent with establishment of the BBS must be generation of capability for and interest in using such a system for sharing genealogical data. Please let me know of your interest, ideas, and possibility of participating.

I welcome hearing from you soon so that I can include your suggestions in my report to the OGS Board in September.

*Woody Trautman, OGS-CIG Chairman, 2625 Middlesex, Toledo, OH 43606. Phone (419) 535-7436.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The deadline for the Newsletter was the day after the Leadership Seminar so I didn't have an opportunity to put too much in regarding it. The comments were very favorable - from very good to excellent. They asked for more - and repeats. The luncheon arrangements (we did not assign dishes to Districts this year) worked over extremely well - plenty of it and delicious. There were some constructive criticisms and enough suggestions for topics for next year that we can practically plan next year's program now. There were 83 present representing 34 Chapters. Our thanks to Richard Nelson, President of the Delaware Co. Chapter, and the members of the Delaware Co. Chapter for hosting us again this year, and to Dale Kellogg for planning an excellent program.

There is a separate article in this Newsletter regarding The Ohio Charitable Trust Act. PLEASE read this thoroughly and carefully. Organizations described in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code are required to file an Initial Registration Form (CFR-1) with the Attorney General's Office. If your gross receipts are more than $5,000 and gross assets are more than $15,000 for any taxable year, you are also required to file a financial statement or copies of all annual federal returns. Fees are levied if your assets are greater than $25,000.

Ohio House Bill 790 is on "hold". A substitute bill may be proposed - which we will review - but whether it is taken up with the Senate Committee on Health, Human Services and Aging is unknown at this time (they convene in November). If it is not considered by this Committee, another bill will probably be in the offing so we must remain alert.

The 1880 Census project is nearing completion and it is hoped it will be completed next month. Mary Bowman, Chairman, has been doing a fantastic job and she says she has had excellent help around the state. If your county has anything left on this project, please complete it and forward it to Mary now.

Jeanne Pramaggiore, President
Ohio Genealogical Society

Reminders:

Every step in a lineage must be proved with an original document (or copy). Published genealogies or county histories by themselves are not proofs. Female applicants who are married must include a marriage record due to their name change.

The Ohio Charitable Trust Act

The Ohio Charitable Trust Act requires that all "Charitable Trusts which are treated as organizations described in Section 501 (c)(3), Internal Revenue Code" must file an Initial Registration Form (CFR-1) along with a copy of the creating documents (Constitution, Articles of Incorporation). This form is filed only once but should any of the information change, the organization must notify the Attorney General's office in writing.

An Annual Financial Report must be filed by any trust whose gross receipts are more than $5,000 and gross assets are more than $15,000 for any taxable year.

If your receipts are in excess of $5,000, you must file a financial statement, signed by a trustee or officer, which accurately reflects the income, expenses, assets, liabilities, and net worth for the year and must be submitted no later than four and one-half months following the close of the organization's accounting year (15th day of the fifth month);

OR, copies of federal returns must be filed with the Attorney General's Office at the same time they are filed with IRS, together with all schedules, attachments and reports due with the return.

Organizations whose assets are greater than $25,000 but less than $100,000 must pay a $25.00 fee. Assets of $100,000 but less than $500,000 must pay a $50.00 fee; and assets of $500,000 or more must pay a $100 fee. Assets refers to the total fair market value of the assets held by the organization at the end of that organization's taxable year as established for federal tax purposes. Filing fees are to be remitted with the initial registration form (CFR-1) for each report due at that time - if the value of assets held exceeds $25,000, and, thereafter, at the same time as the annual financial statement or federal return is submitted.

You can obtain form CFR-1 and return the forms, financial statements, returns and filing fees at the following address: Attorney General Anthony J. Celebrezze, Jr., Charitable Foundations Section, State Office Tower, 15th Floor, 30 East Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio 43266-0410.

If you want to check the Ohio Revised Code, it is Section 109 - Office of Attorney General; Section 109:1, Charitable Foundations Section.

Our Transplanted Buckeyes

A recent examination of OGS membership rolls has led to the surprising discovery that of a total of 6,000 - odd, 2,800 members lived outside of the state of Ohio.

Because there is no specific representation for these out-of-state members, OGS President, Jeanne Pramaggiore has given the Executive Vice President that responsibility, to which the state Board of Trustees has concurred.

Currently, plans are being developed to improve the contacts between our far-flung members and the state organization. In many areas there are groups of OGS members who are unknown to each other, and in a dozen states, there are sixty or so OGS members, a pool sufficiently large enough to support chapter formation (only fifteen are required).

Two chapters, Southern California and Florida, are already in existence, and interest has been expressed in the Dever-Littleton area of Colorado and in eastern Texas. The state OGS stands ready to help. Inquiries should be directed to: Dale C. Kellogg, Executive Vice President, P.O. Box 2625, Mansfield, OH 44906.

Questions & Answers

Answer--July OGS NEWSLETTER page 110--

HANDY GUIDE TO RECORD-SEARCHING IN THE LARGER CITIES OF THE UNITED STATES by E. Kay Kirkham, published by Everton Publishers, is valuable for locating ward locations in the larger cities. We thank the following people for taking the time to help us with this one: Thomas G. Clark of Cincinnati; Effie & Ralph Biesack of San Diego, CA; Marian E. Jones of Prescott, AZ; and K. Haybron Adams of Provo, UT.

The 6th Ward in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1850 was bordered on the north by 6th Street; on the east by Central Avenue, jogging to the west around Grand Central Station; on the south by the Ohio River; and on the west at the point where 6th Street meets the Ohio River at Mill Creek.

Ward maps of Cincinnti can be secured at The Cincinnati Historical Society, Eden Park, Cincinnati, OH 45202. They were available at ten year intervals starting as early as 1820. Write for prices.

Answer: Big Buffalo Run Road in Tyler County, West Virginia, has not been located yet. We have located Right, Left, Little, and (plain) Buffalo Runs or Creeks, but the roads are not named on the map. They are only numbered. If the member's ancestor attended Long Reach Baptist Church around 1838 or later, Kathy Bassett, 1080 N. Holliston, Pasadena, CA 91104, has information on the church's early history. Thanks for the maps and willingness to share, Kathy. If anyone has information on Shreves Cemetery, please notify us.

Question: In the 1830's a Penwell family live 10 miles from a grist mill located at Miami, Ohio. In 1917 the mill was being preserved as a historic landmark. Can anyone identify the location of Miami, Ohio, and/or the grist mill? John and Ellen Penwell were members of Rushville Presbyterian Church, where?

Answer: I find no Miami listed in OHIO COUNTY MAPS AND RECREATION GUIDE, compiled by C. J. Puetz. There is a Miami County. Also, in Montgomery County I find Miamisburg, Miami Shores, and Miami Villa. Miamitown is in Hamilton County and Miamiville is in Clermont. The town of Rushville is in Fairfield County. Can you help this researcher?

NGS Convention Announcement

The National Genealogical Society has announced that the 1991 annual conference will be held in Portland, Oregon, May 29 through June 1, 1991. The locations for 1989 (St. Paul, Minnesota, May 17-20) and 1990 (Arlington, Virginia, June 6-9) had previously been announced.

Relatively Speaking

On September 5 a new nationally-syndicated television program, RELATIVELY SPEAKING, was scheduled to premiere. It features a celebrity panel trying to guess to whom the guest contestant is related.

The producers are interested in hearing from our members who have discovered that they are related to someone who is well-known or famous.

Contestants on the show are eligible to win up to $5,000 in prizes and are guaranteed to have a great time.

If you are interested or have any questions, contact Stephanie Ross, Contestant Coordinator, 10850 Wilshine Boulevard, 9th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90024. Phone (213) 470-0400.

Editor's Note: OGS claims no responsibility for the above announcement or the results of your participation in the show. This announcement is made as a service to our members. If any of our members are on the show, drop me a note so that we can keep our other members informed.

Hotel Renovation

If you were planning to stay at the Temple Square Hotel, 75 West South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, on your next research trip, please check with them first. They have sent an announcement that, beginning in October, 1988, they will begin a renovation that will require a closure of 15 months. You may be able to take advantage of their low pre-renovation genealogy rates if you get this newsletter in time. Their phone number is (800) 221-3151.

Gravestone Artists Sought

The Ohio Artists Project is researching the lives and works of thousands of artists who were active in Ohio before 1900. They are interested in hearing from anyone who can contribute information about gravestone carvers working here during the 18th and 19th centuries. Of particular value would be biographical information, but they are also studying the locations, dates, and distribution of as many signed stones as possible. They are planning a biographical dictionary covering all the arts in Ohio. They believe this will be the first regional study to give due attention to the neglected area of gravestone carving.

They ask that we be on the lookout for signed stones in Ohio and that we share our discoveries with them. Write: Mary Sayre Haverstock, Ohio Artists Project, Oberlin College Library, Oberlin, OH 44074. You may also call Mary at (216) 775-8081.

PERSI Project

THE OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY NEWSLETTER is one of over 1500 publications included in the PERiodical Source Index (PERSI) being compiled by the Allen County (Indiana) Public Library Foundation. PERSI is a comprehensive place, subject, and surname index to genealogical and local history periodicals.

The Foundation is asking your assistance. Many of our chapters are already donating their publications to the Allen County Public Library Genealogy Department. If your chapter does not, it is important that you thoroughly consider doing it now. Being in PERSI gives your periodical exposure and generates subscriptions as

President's Message

Revisions to House Bill 790 have been prepared and we have reviewed them. Vital records will remain open. Our only concern now is the procedure for records disposal. We want the original records preserved. Once we have worked this out, we will support the revised bill one hundred percent. We thank all of you for your letters. Now we need letters to get the committee to consider the revised H. B. 790. Please contact your state senators and representatives, thank them for their support, and tell them we support the revised bill, provided the records are preserved.

Our Board meetings were held Saturday, September 24. We are delighted to welcome Richland-Shelby as a Chapter of The Ohio Genealogical Society. They were accepted as a Chapter at the meeting.

Carol Bell, Editor of "The Report", is seeking "special county editions" of H. H. Hardesty Publishing Company's Military History of Ohio. Most of the county editions were in 1886 and 1887. It is not known whether volumes were published for every county in Ohio. On page 91 of "The Report", Vol. XXVIII, No. 2, Summer 1988, Carol lists some county volumes known to exist. Would you check to see if your county has such an edition and drop a line to Carol at 4649 Yarmouth Lane, Youngstown, OH 44512?

Nancy Applebee, Chairman of the Convention has her committees busy preparing for the Convention in Independence, Ohio, April 28-29, 1989. Since this will be the 30th year for The Ohio Genealogical Society, the theme will be "Pearls and Perils of Research".

Phyllis Miller, Tour Chairman, reported that the tour to Washington, D. C. October 9-16 is full - 43 people are going. Many thanks to Phyllis for a very successful tour.

Chapters are encouraged to send their District Trustee copies of their newsletters. In addition, I hope you are all busy getting the information out on our OGS Essay Contest.

It was voted at the meeting to have The Ohio Genealogical Society represented at the Michigan Genealogical Council's seminar September 28-30, 1989.

Call for Action

The Social Security Administration has plans to destroy the original 37 million applications for Social Security. Some of the information has been put on computer, but much of the general information was omitted. The early files include many people born in the 1860's and 1870's and many naturalized citizens.

One needs Form F SSA-L997 from a SSA office to obtain a copy of the application form for a deceased relative who applied for Social Security.

Letters urging the retention of the original records may be sent to: Social Security Administration, 6401 Security Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21235 and to your representatives in Congress.

OUR TRANSPLANTED BUCKEYES - II

Wherever Ohioans have settled, there is a natural urge to meet others from the native state. This also applies to genealogists and family historians.

Although they may have joined a genealogy group in their new home, many would like to meet fellow Ohioans to exchange ideas, information and answers to their genealogical puzzles.

These meetings should not become a burden on anyone. Florida OGS Chapter, for instance, holds one annual conference with a top-notch speaker, and a Browsing Room (OGS chapter newsletters are there for all to look over). Their own newsletter, Quest, keeps their over 100 members informed and inspired between the annual meetings.

Southern California Chapter also has a strong newsletter, the Buckeye Californian, and relies on sub-chapter county meetings to meet the problem of long driving distances.

If these ideas sound like something you would like to try in your area, let us hear from you. Your representative at the state level is Dale C. Kellogg, 221 Lexington Ave., Elyria, OH 44035. Home phone: (216) 366-8121.

NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

The Nominations and Elections Committee of the Ohio Genealogical Society is now receiving nominations for three trustees-at-large and 15 area trustees, as indicated on the schedule of elective positions for the next three years. The schedule is necessary so the changes brought about by the recent By-Laws revision are clear to all members.

If you think a current officeholder is doing a good job, contact them and ask if they would be willing to be renominated. If you know someone who you think would be a good state-level trustee, contact them. Don't be bashful and assume that someone else has already contacted the person of your choice - do contact them!

If you have a nominee who is willing to participate in our planning and decision making, please make a copy of the OGS Nominations form included elsewhere in this Newsletter. Get it filled out, signed, and dated, and return it to the Ohio Genealogical Society headquarters by the deadline of January 15, 1989.

Without the input of every member, OGS could not be what it is today. Please show your interest in our organization by looking around you and choosing someone to nominate for a statewide office. Believe me - YOUR HELP IS NEEDED.

Computer Interest Group Update*

A. WORKSHOP ON COMPUTER GENEALOGY POSTPONED

The DataShare Group in Northwest Ohio is grateful for the many expressions of interest in attending its announced workshop. Unfortunately, the fledgling group could not muster sufficient help to guarantee the quality of workshop everyone anticipated. As a result, the NWO Workshop previously scheduled for Mar. 31-Apr. 2, 1989, will not be held then. It is hoped that it can be held in the fall of 1989.

DataShare is sorry for any inconvenience that this change of plans might cause. Please keep your suggestions coming and volunteer to help in planning and/or implementing the later event.

B. MAILBAG

Your comments, questions, and suggestions received during the summer help focus your interests and the direction and potential for CIG activities. A sampling follows. Please keep the mail coming.

(a) Computer Performance:

. . . Now using wordprocessor and spreadsheet and seek help in shifting to Personal Ancestral File(PAF). . .Using Digital PRO-350 but no genealogy software or interface to IBM-suggestions?. . .Data on Kaypro (CP/M) and want to use with Apple IIc--how? (emulate Apple programs on Kayrpo?). . .How to decide whether to add more memory (RAM) or invest in a hard disk?. . .How to make a database program produce lineage charts?. . .Need help learning to use my new PAF program. . .How can I input data now on 20,000 index cards directly into my new IBM computer?. . .What genealogy programs are available on MacIntosh?. . . Really fascinated by 'Genealog'. . .Commodore users note: OGS member converting to IBM compatible has new or essentially new software at very good prices (contact * for info).

(b) Clubs and Projects:

. . .should build a statewide roster of OGS members using or interested in using computers on family genealogy. . .agree with the three tasks (for clubs). . .regional CIG's desirable with sharing the gathering compilations and use of genealogical information. . . question of standardization. . .trouble getting SKY Index to work on Kaypro. . .made own Appleworks version of genealogical event database and are inputting a lot of local data . . .using graphics programs. . .using BITnet, which links many universities throughout the free world and has genealogy groups. . .need Ohio network of users of computers for genealogy. . .weekend workshop should be a CIG event.

C. COMPUTERIZING GENEALOGICAL DATA

a. Obits: Several separate OGS groups and libraries are well into building their computer county database on cemeteries, obituaries, and other events. Each has incurred the expense of a new (and different) design. If, through CIG these designs could be shared, new groups could be launched more quickly and inexpensively.

If you are a database Guru, please volunteer to help compose some technical guidelines, perhaps involving GEDCOM, so the results of the separate groups can be more easily compiled into an OGS database for widest sharing. Please write me concerning your knowledge of data computerization activity.

b. Census: Planning proceeds on the character of the computer searchable version of the OGS 1880 Census Index. Soundex codes will be added to name, location, and page reference and searching can be done on any field. Any further suggestions?

D. IMAGING PUBLISHING, AND COMMUNICATING

Letters and conversations with "computer genealogists" indicate increasing activity and interest in applying newer technology. This column will pass along what you share with me and CIG will try to put persons together with like interests. Beyond "usual" computer processing are (among other tools) imaging, publishing, and communications. Here are some beginning thoughts - please add your own.

a. Imaging: Some genealogy programs (and word processors) have the capability of storing and manipulating graphics and pictures. Some persons are now inputting images of old documents via electronic camera or digitizer. Software exists to enhance the quality of the images and to store them in easily processed files. A related device is the text scanner to convert printed text to computer code. Scanners may be available for OGS use in some libraries, universities, or companies.

b. Publishing: The target of all of our efforts is often family history in shareable form, usually in print. Many genealogists use "desk top publishing" software and, desirably, a lazer printer. Related indexing programs become more important. With print-shop capabilities for our use now, a next step may well be the addition of color images. Besides the book, a growing alternative for resource material is, of course, the indexed computer disk.

c. Communicating: Beyond the modem and electronic bulletin board(BBS) are the opportunities for automatic searching across the US via linked BBS, real-time conferencing and file transfer and extending one's reach abroad via the networks (see BITnet reference in B.b. above.

Questions & Answers

Answer: Page 136 (Sept.) Marjorie Buckles, Treasurer of the Miami County Historical Society, has informed us that a Miami City in Miami County was located near the county line. The town is now called Alcony. She searched, but could not find a Penwell family in the 1830 census. She suggests searching Clark and Champaign counties for the family name also.

Answer: Page 110 (July) Gray's Atlas of the U. S. published 1879 shows the wards of Cincinnati. Check your local library for this.

Computer Interest Group Update continued

The complementary activity is transfer of data among dissimilar programs and/or dissimilar computers. GEDCOM formats and ASCII code offer good tools.

President's Message

We had another meeting with the Department of Health and representatives from Senator Hobson's and Representative Jones' offices on November 1st. The proposed revisions were discussed and we are in agreement. Vital statistics will remain open.

The system for records disposal was explained in this manner: all records at the Health Department up to the time of the passing of this bill will be transferred to th Ohio Historical Society when birth records are 100 years old and death records are 50 years old. Marriage records were not collected at the state level until 1947, so there is no urgency regarding them.

No system of records generated after this bill passes has been proposed yet. The Director of the Health Department will propose rules and hold public hearings after which it will go to the joint Committee on Agency Rule Review. I have been assured by Mr. Jamie Young, Legislative Liaison for the Department of Health, that we will be notified when these rules are to be prepared. The Ohio Historical Society will be involved in preparing these rules.

Please write Senator David L. Hobson, Ohio Senate, State House, Columbus, Ohio 43215, as well as your senators and representatives, telling them that we support this bill.

Congratulations to our neighbors to the west for organizing a state-wide genealogical Society. The Indiana Genealogical Society held a meeting in Anderson, Indiana, October 29th, at which time the constitution was

Our Transplanted Buckeyes - III

OGS members going to Florida this winter should know that they and their friends are invited to attend the 1989 Conference of the Florida OGS Chapter, which will be held on Saturday, February 18, at the Harley Hotel in downtown Orlando.

An added incentive is that the Harley Hotel is just two blocks from the Orlando Public Library, which has a good genealogical section.

Principal speaker will be Thomas A. Burke of the Ohio State Auditor's office. He will present "Digging into Ohio's Land Records".

Ohio chapters are urged to send brochures, book notices, and other "freebies" for the conference to: Florida OGS, P.O. Box 7933, Orlando, FL 32854.

Our organizing seeds have fallen on fertile soil, and already plans are afoot for area-wide meetings of OGS members in Denver, eastern Texas, Phoenix, Salt Lake City, and Chicago.

Information as to time and place will be sent to all members in these states as soon as they are definitely scheduled.

Other states with sizeable OGS memberships are: Indiana (200+), Michigan (200+), Washington (110), Virginia-DC (90), and Missouri (70+). To get something going in your area, contact Dale C. Kellogg, OGS

COMPUTER INTEREST GROUP ROUNDTABLE *

A. CONVENTION April 29-30, 1989:

In addition to the computer sessions arranged by the program committee, CIG plans to host a special luncheon, rap sessions, on-line GEnie chat session and a continuous 'help' table. At the luncheon Barbara Clawson, chair of the NGS CIG (Alexandria VA) will alert us to national happenings in Computer Genealogy. Table seating will be optional by computer conversation topic. OGS'er Jana Broglin will operate the computer/modem for the on-line chat, taking input from the audience. We need volunteers for the rap sessions and the 'help' table. Please write me your choice! - and by all means plan to attend.

B. IMAGING:

Three OGS'ers have written me about their inclusion of computer-stored photos on their genealogy charts (Columbus/Delaware, Mansfield and Seattle). Interestingly, two use MACs with their own programs! Check out a ThunderScan scanner (with software for both images and text), and a ComputerEyes Video Digitizer. 'MacAncestors' is a HyperCard Program available for $35 from the Seattle Genealogical Society, POBox 549, zip 98111. Let me know your interests and I'll put you in touch with the other 'imagers'.

C. COMMUNICATIONS:

For those not in metropolitan areas, connecting to GEnie or CompuServe can mean a long distance charge. If so, check each network for its prices for different baud rates at various area points. For example, calls from Ottawa to Fort Wayne may be cheaper than to Toledo; also a smaller 'connect' town or a faster rate may involve a surcharge....Whatever the access, on-line charges can be substantially reduced for the person who already knows what files to download. 'AutoSig' is a Shareware program that will do everything automatically in the dead of night in probably 1/100 the time of manual operation!

D. LEST WE FORGET:

Newcomers have shared their concerns about vocabulary, selection of hardware and software and making productive use of their systems. This will be a focus in an early issue....I'm hearing increasingly of local projects in Computerizing Genealogical Data but want to know of more in order to present a summary account. What are you doing?....Finally, if you missed the notice - the DataShare Workshop scheduled for next April has been postponed. Sorry.

Also, don't forget your nominations for the upcoming elections.

WE NEED YOUR HELP WITH THE OGS BUILDING FUND

In the spring of 1985, The Ohio Genealogical Society initiated a building fund drive to construct a library addition. Since that time, we have had the good fortune of acquiring the Bushnell House. This offers a much better location, more parking space, meeting room, and storage space. Also, our library and archival space was improved with 1000 square feet on one floor. Our microfilm facilities are one-half flight of stairs above the library level. While our present facilities are much improved and adequate, it is evident that we must continue our building fund drive. Our tentative plans for the proposed additon will allow for the doubling of the library space and make all public areas, including restrooms, wheelchair accessible.

Our goal, as set in 1985, was to raise $225,000. At the present time, we have only reached the halfway point in our fund raising efforts. We now have $114,072.76 in the Building Fund.

Most of you have received your renewal notice and the 1989 membership card by now. On the renewal is a place for donations for the Library Fund (the purchase of books, microfilm, etc.) and for the Building Fund. Please consider a donation this year, and remember, your donations ARE still tax deductible. Check with your employer. Some companies match employee donations to charitable organizations and we are listed with the State of Ohio as a non-profit corporation.

We need your help to make the Ohio Genealogical Society Library one of the best in the nation. So, when you send in that check for membership, put OGS on your Christmas list and add a little more for the Building Fund. Make your dreams a reality.

REMEMBER OGS IN YOUR WILL

You can support OGS by using the following form in your will.

"I bequeath to the Ohio Genealogical Society, incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio, having its offices at Mansfield, Ohio, the sum _____Dollars ($____) to be used by said corporation for the purpose for which it is incorporated."

Social Security Update

Genealogists may write to: Social Security Administration, OCRO Metro West Building, 300 N. Greene, Baltimore, MD 21201, to get copies of Social Security applications.

A form for this is available, but it is not necessary, and the local county offices are not aware of this form.

If you can give the Social Security number, the charge for the copy is $2.00. Otherwise, the charge is $6.00.

Please provide the name, and if possible, additional identifying information, such as the father's name, mother's maiden name, and place of birth of the individual.

The original Social Security records have always been destroyed periodically, but they are always preserved on microfilm first, and this is what the copies are made from.

President's Message

By now, you should all have been informed that the Revised House Bill 790 was passed in both the Senate and the House. Vital Statistics will remain open. Congratulations to all of you for your support, your calls, and your letters. They did make a difference.

Congratulations to Sandusky County Kin Hunters and Vinton County Historical and Genealogical Society. Both were accepted as Chapters of OGS at the Board meeting November 19, 1988. They will receive their charters at the OGS Convention April 28 and 29, 1989, in Independence, Ohio. We now have a total of 91 chapters. (See last page of this newsletter.)

Your membership renewals have been mailed to you and I hope you have all returned them before you became too busy with the Holiday season. Also, please don't forget that your nominations must be in by January 15, 1989. This year, with the redistricting, more District Trustees will need to be nominated. Please check the October 1988 newsletter to find out what District your chapter will be in and be sure a nomination for District Trustee from your district is submitted. There are also three Trustees-at-Large.

In the Calendar of Events sent out with your membership renewals, there is a correction. The Michigan Genealogical Council Seminar will be held in NOVI, Michigan - part of the metro Detroit area - on 28-30, 1989. Please make that correction on your Calendar of Events.

The deadline for submitting your applications for First Families of Ohio is March 12, 1989, in order to be approved by convention time. Now is the time to pull together the final papers and submit them.

The Policy and Guidelines Manual (Blue Book) will soon undergo a complete revision, but, in the meantime, I would like to remind outgoing Chapter Presidents to pass the Blue Book on to their successors. If a Blue Book needs to be replaced, a charge of $15.00 will need to be levied.

Have a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. My Christmas wish is that we each find a missing link in our Family Tree.

Jeanne Pramaggiore
President

NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

The form for nominations to the Ohio Genealogical Society's Board of Trustees was printed in the October Newsletter (please note should be sent to 34 Sturges Ave., P.O. Box 2625, and not 419 W. Third, as was noted on form), and so far we have received 3 nominations for Trustee-at-Large, and 1 nomination for a District Trustee. The deadline is January 15, 1989, so please look around; if you know someone who would be a good OGS trustee, or if a current trustee is, you feel, doing a good job, get their nomination in to Headquarters.

One extra note: if there are blanks on the nomination form that your nominee does not feel comfortable in answering, they can leave it blank; there is no requirement that every bit of information asked for needs to be filled in - but the membership will need information to make choices, too, so the factors need to be balanced. So, fill in as much as your nominee can abide - and send them in NOW.

Julie M. Overton
Chair, Nomination and Elections Committee

OUR TRANSPLANTED BUCKEYES - IV

The value of a strong state genealogical organization was proven this fall with the successful campaign to amend the infamous HB 790. Part of the strong pressure that was brought to bear on Ohio's General Assembly came from our two out-of-state chapters, Southern California and Florida.

Both publicized the issue in their respective newsletters. Evidence of their influence came with Senator David Hobson's remark to OGS President, Jeanne Pramagiorre, "Call off your dogs in California!"

OUR TRANSPLANTED BUCKEYES - IV Continued

The Southern California Chapter plays an active role in the annual Spring Genealogical Jamboree which is sponsored by the Southern California Genealogical Society. The 1989 conference will be held in Pasadena, 23 April, and the Chapter is asking each Ohio chapter to send 100 copies of their brochure, publications for sale, etc. for the SCCOGS table. They should be sent to Bonnie Morris, 10507 S. Corley Dr., Whittier, CA 90604-1114.

* * * *

By the way, Bonnie Morris, who has been Area Vice President for Los Angeles County, was elected to a two-year term as Chapter President in November. Elected as Chapter Vice President was Willis Wyant, who has been Area Vice President for Orange County, and who, when he lived in Ohio, served as Vice President for Area 2E of OGS. Willis and his wife celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this fall.

* * * *

To cope with the driving distances, and to encourage fellowship and cooperation among their members, the Florida Chapter has divided the state into ten districts. Within each district Co-membership Liason persons have been named to serve as "contact members" for each county. Future district meetings are a distinct possibility.

* * * *

Added to the areas where meetings are being planned for OGS members are southeastern Michigan and Seattle, Washington. When a definite time and place is known, information will be sent to all members in the area.

OHS Change of Hours

The Ohio Historical Society Library will be closed on December 24 and 31. They regret any inconvenience this change may cause.

CEMETERY COMMITTEE UPDATE

The chairman of the Cemetery Committee wishes to express a sincere thank you to all who have worked diligently to submit material for the OHIO CEMETERY ADDENDUM. While I am unable to respond to each individually and keep up with deadlines, each packet is being handled and placed in the computer. The original submission will be filed at OGS Headquarters when the project is completed. If you have any questions, please call after 7:00 p.m. at 613-826-7348.

I have recently joined the Association For Gravestone Studies, 46 Plymouth Road, Needham, MA 02192. We have shared a copy of the OHIO CEMETERY GUIDE which they received warmly. They have donated a copy of A GRAVEYARD PRESERVATION PRIMER, by Lynette Strangstad to OGS Library and I highly recommend that each Cemetery Chairman review or obtain a copy of the PRIMER. Utilizing both the PRIMER and the GUIDE will enhance Ohio's efforts to protect our cemeteries.

Membership in the Association For Gravestone Studies provides a newsletter and reduced costs on such other publications as their JOURNAL OF THE ASSOCIATION FOR GRAVESTONE STUDIES "MARKERS", pamphlets and information on their yearly Conference. Besides care and preservation the association delves into the art and history of gravestones. With our Ohio "network" of cemetery committees through OGS, we have a lot to share with the Association.

Just a reminder about the Ohio Artists Project concerning information of gravestone carvers working in your area. They wish biographical information if possible as well as locations, dates and distribution of signed stones. The end result will be a biographical dictionary covering all arts in Ohio. If you have questions contact Mary Sayre Haverstock, 216-775-8081. However, I recommend writing and if you wish a reply, send an SASE. Ohio Artists Project Oberlin College Library, Oberlin, OH 44074. HINT: Probate case packets often contain signed receipts from carvers.

WHAT IS ORPF?

This is a commonly asked question when new members get their membership renewal notices each year.

Ohio Records and Pioneer Families (ORPF) is a genealogical quarterly which was founded by the late Esther Weygandt Powell in 1960. The publication was assumed by the Ohio Genealogical Society in 1970 with William R. M. Houston, M.D., succeeding Mrs. Powell as Editor. Ohio source materials published in ORPF include Bible records, cemetery inscriptions, tax lists, pioneer families, marriages, deaths, mortality schedules, territorial records, etc. Each volume of ORPF is indexed in the fourth issue.

The latest edition of ORPF (V. 29, No. 3) includes an informative article on the 1820 Census by W. Louis Phillips, C.G. The feature article is followed by Bible records from six selected Ohio counties, cemetery records from Richland County, a continuing Revolutionary War pension application abstracts series by Julie Overton, and an extensive article on the Shakers of Cuyahoga County. A free query section is found at the end of each issue.

Why not consider a subscription to ORPF in 1989 if you are a serious Ohio genealogist? Any funds derived from the magazine benefit the Ohio Genealogical Society Library. A new plain paper copier for microfilm/microfiche, and the 1988 IGI (World) were purchased from ORPF funds earlier this year.

Family Group Records

Regarding the Group Sheets: Please use those prepared by OGS for the project. (They are available from OGS at 6 sheets for 25 cents plus postage.) Due to the difficulties experienced to date, horizontal group sheets will no longer be accepted. We will further accept only those submitted on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. We cannot continue to accept computerized group sheets of more than one page. Please remember to provide sources. Please do not staple your entries together. Be sure your name and address is on each entry as they are filed in alphabetical order and will not be entered together. Be sure the surname of the ancestor is on each sheet also.

On the OGS Group Sheets, under children: a question has arisen regarding the line BURIAL. This was so stated in order that it could be used either for place or date of burial or both. Another question arose as to what ancestors to submit. Any direct ancestor is eligible - a good rule is to use your five generation chart as a guide and submit any ancestor on whom you have sufficient information to fill out a group sheet. Remember the reverse side is for extra children and sources. Keep the group sheets coming.

Social Security Records Clarification

According to a recent letter received from Dorcas R. Hardy, Commissioner of Social Security, there is nothing NEW about destruction of original Social Security applications. The government has issued over 328 million Social Security numbers. The sheer volume of paper prohibits keeping all of the applications.

The procedure has been to place the pertinent information into a computer data bank for easy access. Next, the front of the application is microfilmed. Then, with the written approval of the U. S. Archivist with the National Archives and Records Administration, the original is destroyed.

The records are accessible from the data base by surname and date of receipt, among other means. (See October and November newsletters for previous information and addresses.) The more recent the application, the more information was requested from the applicant.

There is no charge for data retrieved from the data base. There is a minimal charge for the microfilm copy because of the amount of time involved in a search.

My apologies for any misunderstanding or confusion the previous information may have caused. I hope that this clarifies the matter and that the information is understood.

Clayton Family Records Donated

The Ohio Genealogical Society has been informed by a lawyer, that the Clayton Family Records, assembled by Nettie Berenice Clayton late of Shattuck, Oklahoma, have been willed to it, along with the sum of $2,000. Ms. Clayton had been a member of OGS for the past nineteen years.

The Board of Trustees is very appreciative of this forthcoming bequest from a devoted genealogist.

We were not informed of the date and place of death. If you had corresponded with Ms. Clayton, perhaps you could give us additional information. We regret her passing.

Ohio State Fair Winner, OGS Member

Tabitha Culver, a member of the Wyandot Tracers, Wyandot County Historical Society, and The Ohio Genealogical Society, was first-place winner in the senior division in genealogy at the 1988 Ohio State Fair. She is the first person to win the state junior and senior divisions, back to back. Tabitha is the daughter of Sue Culver, president of the Wyandot Tracers. At age 15, Tabi has proven eleven ancestors in Ohio by 1820 and twenty-three ancestors in Wyandot County between 1850 and 1860. Our congratulations are extended for her superior accomplishments and our hope that her interests will continue for many years to come. We are proud of you, Tabi!

Timeline

The December 1988 - January 1989 issue of Timeline, a publication of the Ohio Historical Society, contains several articles that genealogists may find very interesting. "Main Street" discusses Ohio's rich architectural heritage. "Kodak - You Press the Button, We Do the Rest" gives insight into early photography and the life of George Eastman. Articles on Kelley's Island Glacial Grooves and Wm. T. Sherman will also be of interest. Check your local library for copies. Clarification on Cincinnati Ward Maps

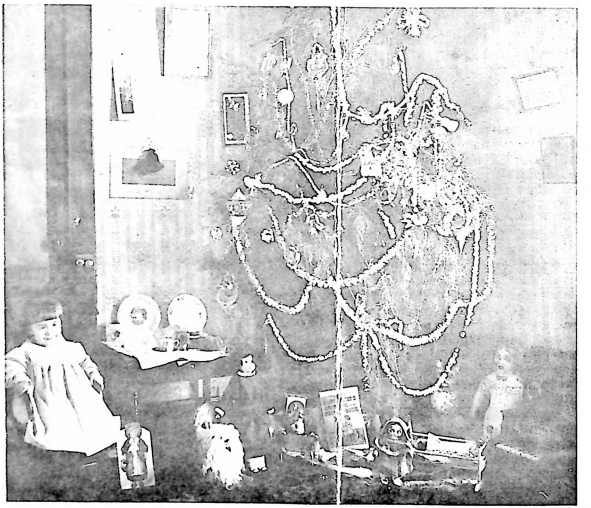
Page 136 of the September 1988 OGS Newsletter referred to the availability of Cincinnati Ward Maps. Laura Chase, the Frederick A. Hauck Librarian, has written to clarify this issue for us. She reports that the library took a fairly recent map of the city and indicated ward boundaries on hand-colored polyester oversheets. These maps are available in the reading room, but the colored mylar does not photocopy, so the maps cannot be successfully duplicated. Drawing boundary lines on maps was tried, but unsuccessful, because crucial information was obliterated. They are seeking a solution to the dilemna.

We thank Ms. Chace for this information and hope that a solution can be found soon. For now, you must visit for the information on ward locations that you seek.

Questions and Answers

Question: Can any of our members help to pin down the date of this photo? I believe it is of Florence Reynard, age 2, in Licking County, Ohio, in 1886. Do you concur or disagree from what you have observed about the items in the picture that this could have been taken in 1886?



QUESTION: What was the "Women's Relief Corp"? A member has a medal that has a blue ribbon. At the top of the blue ribbon is a bar with PRESIDENT stamped on it. In the middle of the blue ribbon is a small shield showing two soldiers and a woman. At the bottom of the blue ribbon is a "cross" on which is written, "Women's Relief Corp". On the bottom of the cross is the date 1833.

ANSWER: The Woman's Relief Corps, National, is the oldest woman's patriotic organization in the United States, according to World Book Encyclopedia, 1986. It was founded in Denver, Colorado, in 1883 for the purpose of rendering aid to veterans of the Union Army or their widows or orphans. In July 1883, it was voted the official auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic, an organization of veterans of the Union Army in the Civil War. It is divided into some forty departments and subdivided into corps. It is supposed to have about 15,000 members and is the only existing patriotic organization founded solely on the basis or loyal womanhood, regardless of kinship. It also had the purpose of memorializing the GAR and perpetuating the memory of its dead. It works to assist veterans of all wars of the US and encourages universal liberty, equal rights, and love of country. Can any of our members add to this information? The headquarters are supposed to be at 629 S. Seventh Street, Springfield, IL 62703, according to World Book.

The medal in the possession of this member is most likely dated 1883. It is worth from $3.00 to $5.00 and is fairly common, according to my source. It probably would have greater sentimental value if you knew its owner. Check with a reliable antique dealer in your area if you wish to sell it.

This ends the index of the 1988 issues of the OGS Newsletter.

Thank you, Volunteers!

The end of each year is an appropriate time to thank our many OGS volunteers for helping to make the year a success. First, I want to thank Gerry and Kay Hudson for their computer assistance and for the index in this issue. Mary Beebe and Dixie Weideman also gave assistance on the index, and Mary Anschutz has done the queries and assisted with much of the typing this year, for which I am extremely grateful.

This is a listing of people who volunteer each month to get the labels on the newsletters and get them ready to mail: Joyce Lichtenwalter, Anna Lois Copeland, Collette Crumlick, Kay Miller, Elizabeth Gray, Kay Yarman, Leva Kunkle, Jane Harper, Peg Harvey, Ruth Black, Corinne Kuhn, Rosamund Snyder, Eleanore Homesley, and Lausena Stoner.

Others who may also help with the newsletter, but also perform other jobs for OGS are: Winton Arnold, Sam Metzger, Ruth Gram, Arline Dowds, Fritz Henney, Mary Jane Henney, Jane Fisher, Ruth Hostetter, Don Kindinger, Cary Belle Latimer, Paul Midlam, Shirley Thompson, Ernie Urban, Donna Urban, Dick Barnes, Dick Weaver, Erma Travis, Laverne Piatt, Linda Martz, Maxine Kinton, Helen Hamilton, Doris Frye, Paul Corbitt, Jack Clements, Eva Clements, Marilyn Johnson, Phyllis Frazee, John Stiteler, Carrie Foster, Elvanor Straw, Lois Stine, Gertrude Gutchall, Ruby Bonecutter, Steve Urwin, and Robert A. Cunning.

We thank all of you for your time and devotion to your volunteer duties.

Questions and Answers

QUESTION: Should residence in Gallia County by the year 1820 be chosen by the Gallia County Chapter, OGS, as their requirement for membership in the proposed First Families of Gallia County? Should they go to a later year when different boundaries were used, such as 1830, 1840, or 1850?

ANSWER: Personally, I would prefer 1850 because I could add the descendants of those five I have already proven for First Families of Ohio as living in Gallia County by 1820. Realistically, I think that you should consider that Gallia was founded much earlier than the counties in northwestern Ohio, and probably should have an earlier date requirement than Wyandot or Hancock, for example. Another consideration could be that Gallia County has had at least two courthouse fires and some proof may have been destroyed. Perhaps you could consider two categories and award gold certificates for ancestors who resided in Gallia by or before 1820 and silver certificates for those who were there before 1850.

Those members who have worked on First Families or Pioneer Families of a county are asked to forward their ideas to the Gallia County group. Also, individuals who have suggestions can reply. If you will send a copy to me, I would be glad to prepare an article on this issue for a later edition of this newsletter. What do you think, readers?

Genealogy in a Nut Shell or
Sharing the Glee of the Family Tree

by Jeanne Garn Cook

First fill out a chart for your own family--Father, Mother,
Sisters, Brothers--dates of birth for all.
Write a story about each one. All this can be great fun.

Add grandparents' names to a continuing chart,
You might not know them all, but you "gotta have heart".

Then ask your relatives what they recall,
You'll fill in more blanks, but you won't fill them all.

Correspond with Aunt Maggie and check out cemetery lots,
Vital statistics can fill in some spots.

Clues are awaiting to lead you to more.
The search is in progress and you just can't ignore--
Boxes of treasures your relatives saved,
Stories they told you of how they behaved.

Record dates and places the family stayed,
And note where they moved when some of them strayed.

Now your're ready for records that governments store
Like census and courts and military lore,

And who paid their taxes and who left a will,
And who held town office, and who ran a still.

There are books about counties and books about towns,
If you know the right places, the names can be found.

So study migrations and learn lots of history
To locate the family and clear up the mystery.

The churches kept records and sometimes the schools.
Be pleasant with queries and please learn the rules--
Like enclosing a SASE when you write,
And thanking the people who help with your plight.

The libraries will find you, wherever you are,
You just can't resist them--no matter how far.

There are classes to help, when you need some attention,
And magazines too numerous for genealogists to mention.

Don't forget--be involved in a genealogy group,
For ideas to share and more places to snoop.

The more you help others the more that you learn,
So don't be too busy to do a good turn.

The search is a challenge; so personal the tale:
You're in for surprises; you wait for the mail.

There's travel to places you never expected,
And families of interest you never connected.

Now write out your story for all those concerned.
The fun's in the SHARING the facts you have learned!
